

LEAVENWORTH FILM FESTIVAL

STUDENT FILMS WANTED

The Leavenworth Film Festival and North 40 Productions are proud to announce the Promising Young Filmmaker Award for this year's annual film festival on Saturday, April 8, 2017.

This award aims to recognize young and promising talent in the art of creative storytelling for Northwest filmmakers under the age of 25.

One selected finalist will have their film screened at this year's festival as well as receive a $250 grant towards producing their next film, and a personal mentorship through North 40 Productions and award winning filmmaker and editor, Oly Mingo.

Students and young adults within the Wenatchee, East Wenatchee, Entiat, Chelan, Manson, Cashmere and Leavenworth school districts, as well as Wenatchee Valley College, are invited to submit short films in any genre of 5 minutes or less.

Deadline for submissions is Sunday, April 2. To submit films or to learn more visit leavenworthfilmfestival.org or contact LFFyouthfilm@gmail.com

